

NEWS FROM
Hong Kong

WILD WILD WEST

With a zest for participating in charity events, Lina and nine students from the HongKong Line Dancing Association performed at the "WildWild West" on 4th November 2005 at the invitation of The Society of Publishers in Asia.

Set in the "old American pioneer West", this fundraising Ball held at the Grand Hyatt, HongKong was in aid of The Society for the Relief of Disabled Children. Lina and her group took the ballroom by storm with their three Country and Western numbers: Holdin' a Good Hand (Award winning piece choreographed by Lina), Country Drive and Looking Back to See. This was the first time that many guests in attendance had been exposed to traditional Line Dancing in HongKong. The overall response was so sensational that clapping and tapping were heard throughout this short entertainment segment.

Dancing at the Wild Wild West event in Hong Kong (right)

International Line Dance News from onLinedancer Magazine

A Red Indian from the Wild Wild West (above)

Lina and her students with Mr. Alan Lammin, Chairman of 2005 Publishers Ball Committee (below)

International Line Dance News from onLinedancer Magazine